Competitive Events

This year I created two workshops to help you learn what's new in competitive events. The first workshop is full of fun videos and activities to help you learn all about how you can go "Beyond Measure" in competitive events this year. In this virtual adventure you can journey through "A Kingdom of Competitive Events" to learn all about STAR Events, Skill Demonstration Events, and LifeSmarts Knowledge Bowl. This workshop is all about a kingdom where "Anyone Can Rule" through competitive events. You can visit the Sorcerer's Lair Fairy Forest, Knight's Corner, Fortune Teller's Tower, Latest News Lagoon, and Activity Alley. There are animated informational videos that are accompanied by a word search, coloring sheet, or bingo activity.

The second workshop is an evaluator training. In this training you will find an informational video and mock evaluation. This workshop will provide all the information you need to be successful and go "Beyond Measure" as a STAR Event evaluator and competitor.

Hello Washington FCCLA! The State Executive Council has been working hard on planning the Fall Regional meetings, Virtual National Leadership activities, and many other things! This month Alyssa Lloyd, Briana Castro, and Calvin Wallace, would like to tell you what they have been up to since their time in office.

Hi there! My name is Madison Fairbanks and I am your Washington FCCLA state secretary! I am super excited to be serving this year! I am from Cofax High School in Region 9! I have been a part of FCCLA since my freshman year; despite my efforts to join in middle school. I not only participate in FCCLA but also cheerleading, FFA, NHS, ASB! I love animals, I have two dogs, one cat and one bunny and I raise and show lambs! In my free time I love to watch shows or movies, right now I am working on Grey’s Anatomy!

Enough about me... Here is what Alyssa Lloyd, the Vice President of Community Service, wants you, the members of Washington FCCLA to know...

As the Vice President of Community Service, I am in charge of promoting community service projects of Washington FCCLA members, encouraging volunteering, running Region 10’s STAR Events, and creating a statewide service project for the 2020-2021 school year!!!

I’ve partnered with Jana’s Campaign, a non-profit organization that educates on dating violence and advocates for victims of domestic violence.
