LETTER TO ADVISERS

Washington FCCLA Chapter Advisers:

The Washington FCCLA State Officer Program provides tremendous opportunities for students to gain new leadership skills, learn critical thinking, improve their planning and organizational skills, become stronger speakers, demonstrate initiative, and much more. Holding a State Officer position is a unique and valuable experience that we are excited to share with your students!

Along with the considerable benefits that come with being a State Officer, there are important responsibilities that officers take on; and we need your help to ensure that students who plan to run for state office are aware of these responsibilities. If elected, both you and they will ensure that those responsibilities are fulfilled.

As an adviser with a candidate and (if elected) a State Officer, the expectation is that you will complete the responsibilities outlined on the next page.

By signing the forms included in this packet, you are making a commitment to your candidate/state officer and Washington FCCLA. Training and directing state officers is a team effort, and it is essential that the officer's adviser be a part of that team.

Thank you for encouraging your student to step forward and to seek a position as a Washington FCCLA State Officer.

Sincerely,
Austin Dedmon, Executive Council Coordinator
Washington FCCLA

Trent Misak, Executive Director
Washington FCCLA

IS RUNNING FOR WASHINGTON FCCLA STATE OFFICE RIGHT FOR ME?

We are so excited that you are considering running for a Washington FCCLA State Officer position! The opportunities provided to state officers are very important and many of our state officer alumni count their time as an officer as a pivotal experience in their lives. Along with the opportunities and benefits of being an officer come many responsibilities. The state staff will be by your side all year to help you balance personal, academic, and officer life, but be sure that you carefully consider your decision to run for state office and what it requires.

The time that State Officers will have to commit to FCCLA each week will vary based on projects and events each month. Prior to state officer meetings, conferences, and FCCLA events, the amount of time required tends to spike as officers finalize preparations and polish up projects. Now remember: your academics are always your #1 priority, but you are expected to stay on top of your FCCLA projects as well.

If you are elected, you will be required to attend conferences, officer meetings, and FCCLA events throughout the year. You will not be allowed to leave early, come late, or miss any parts of these events (except in the case of an extreme emergency). If an emergency or unavoidable conflict does occur, you will be expected to communicate with State Staff in a timely manner to discuss options. Although big football games, dances, and sports can be fun, it is expected that these obligations fall second to any FCCLA required event.

State staff and the current Washington FCCLA State officers will host two (2) optional interest meetings via Zoom to answer any questions that you may have about the application requirements, commitments, election process, or anything else that you may have questions about.

If you are willing to take on the challenge in the coming year, running for Washington FCCLA state office is for you! It's perfectly fine to be nervous or apprehensive about running for office, so feel free to reach out to our staff to see if running for state office is right for you. If you decide to run for office, be assured that holding state office will not only be one of the most memorable experiences of your life, but also one that will actively prepare you for professional life after high school, no matter what field you choose to work in. We are excited for your journey and look forward to an incredible year!

STATE OFFICER CANDIDATE AGREEMENT INFORMATION SHEET

Purpose:

Becoming a Washington FCCLA State Officer requires a commitment on the part of all parties concerned. To make that commitment, each party must understand the responsibility to this leadership training experience. For a candidate to be eligible for office, all parties indicated must sign this agreement.

State Officer Candidates should understand that, if elected, attendance at all state officer meetings and activities is required. Failure to attend any of these meetings will result in their removal from office, except for emergencies/unsafe traveling conditions. It should also be understood that an officer may be removed from office if he/she fails to comply with state officer responsibilities/assignments, for failure to participate in activities, and for conduct which would reflect negatively on Washington FCCLA or the State Officer Team.

If elected, the candidate agrees to:

1. Perform to the best of his/her ability the duties of the elected office.
2. Maintain an un-weighted GPA of 2.5 or better based on a 4.0 scale during their term of office.
3. Attend and participate in ALL activities scheduled by the Washington Association of FCCLA including, but not limited to the state officer meetings, state officer training, and conferences and attest that, "I fully understand the responsibilities and obligations of the position I seek; and, if elected, will carry them out to the very best of my ability. I further understand that if, in the opinion of the majority of the State Staff, I fail to fulfill my responsibilities and obligations of office, and/or I violate the Washington FCCLA Student Code of Conduct, I can be removed from office."

State officers are strongly encouraged, but not required, to attend the following conferences: National Leadership Conference, National Fall Conference and Capitol Leadership.

Washington FCCLA will pay all expenses for required activities. Please note that while Washington FCCLA pays most travel expenses, some extra expenses will be the responsibility of each state officer (meals during travel to and from meetings and personal spending money). If an officer attends any of the national sponsored conferences, he/she will be expected to fully participate in all conference activities as instructed by State Staff.

The Parent(s)/Guardian(s) Agree To:

1. Authorize state officer to visit Washington schools and participate in all Washington FCCLA activities, state officer meetings, and other official officer duties for the purpose of conducting official FCCLA state officer business.
2. Encourage the state officer to take full benefit of the leadership development experience.
3. Authorize the state officer's name/likeness in publications, productions, promotions, and on websites for informational, promotional, and other related purposes without further consideration.
